Audience Adults, All Christian Denominations – Poetry, Inspirational, Spiritual Growth

This beautiful book of mystical poetry expresses our most intimate journey with Jesus. Weaving God's truth with life experience, these poems explore the reality of our current circumstances and lead one into a deepened sense of connection with our God. Proclamations of worship, praise, love and thanksgiving fill these pages, allowing readers to elevate God through words of Biblically based poetic truth. The author's Celtic heritage has produced a quiet, contemplative style that will help you walk along the way to holiness and to look to and trust Jesus who is there in all circumstances.

- Intelligent, reflective poetry
- 66 poems with attractive interior design
- Avoids all cliché's associated with some Christian poetry
- Biblically sound for evangelicals and charismatics alike
- Mystic Christian style, ideal for quiet meditation
- Sample poem titles:
 - Self or Him
 - The Heart Exposed
 - The Purging
 - Fight and Overcome
 - Faithful & True
 - The Inner Life
 - Your Glory Come

About the author

John has been a follower of Jesus for the past fifteen years and has spent most of this time in China teaching at university, and in business projects there. Prior to this he spent more than two decades working in the business world in Ireland, the UK, France and Germany. He has a passion for justice and truth, and to see people lifted up, drawn into God's heart and experience his love and presence.
